

of Greenland, which you come through, are such strong Anti-Slavery towns that you will like the feeling of the air I hope. My sister (who is the drawing one) is delighted to draw Whittier's house for you
- I can write a description for you & wish I could use the pencil in your behalf.

Here are three generations who all love you dear Mrs Child So do come as soon as you can, on any day that is good for you suits Aunt Lucy as well.

Yours very truly

Mary R Benson.

an orator of South Carolina in the capital of that State is reported to have said that "He considered the castigation applied to at the right time in the right place, by the right man with the right instrument, that instrument by which we cherish the objects of Senator Sumner's falsehearted benevolence & hypocritical humanity when they become insolent!"
Bingham 1580, p 2/56

"To add the crowning glory to the good work the slaves of Columbia have already a handsome subscription & will present an appropriate token of their regard to him (Mr Brooks) who has made the first practical issue for their preservation & protection in their rights & enjoyments as the happiest laborers on the face of the globe"
